Jan08/23	The Cabinet will be asked to note the progress of further developments on joint working across Suffolk and the impact it may have on St Edmundsbury Borough Council.	The Suffolk Waste Partnership, comprising all local authorities in Suffolk, has been exploring options for further development of joint working. The aim was to identify key business drivers, assess potential options for partnership arrangements and identifying possible savings. The assessment identified that the following three options were worthy of further consideration by the Partnership: formalising current arrangements; integrated recycling, treatment and disposal; and a fully integrated waste authority.
